Can you believe that these people come here before school starts to get ready for the new students?

Do we have to do this?

Who knows what their up to — but they keep us busy during that uncomfortable time of orientation. Thanks to all the Student Orientation leaders! J.O. Hixon, Clif Watkins, De Smith, John Ovington, Enid Blount, Sarah Poole (Fourth Row); Tamar Ben-Pazi, Heidi Nifong, Christine Driscoll, Marilyn Korte (Third Row); Kelly Knox, Glen Rumsey, Monica Mills, Holly Haddad, John Noyes (Second Row); Rob Royce, Kristen Counts, Judy Schoenfeld, Tim Reid (First Row). LEADERS OF

Phil Nelson

Philip F. Nelson, 61, is a choral conductor and a musicologist. He has extensive teaching and administration experience. He has worked at Yale University as dean of the graduate school of music and as a music professor. He has worked at the University of California at Santa Cruz, the State University of New York at Binghamton, and Arizona State University.

A Minnesota native, Nelson is a graduate of Grinnel College in Iowa and earned both his master's degree and doctoral degree from UNC-Chapel Hill. As a Fullbright scholar, he also studied at the Université de Paris and the Conservatoire National de Paris.

He is married to the former Georgia Yelland of Mason City, Iowa. She was the dean of freshman at Yale from 1971 until 1981. They have two children, Curtis Ann, 28, and Philip, Jr., 26.

Dr. Nelson is happy to be returning to North Carolina and is very happy about working at the North Carolina School of the Arts.

Bob Trotter

Robert Trotter is the new acting vice chancellor for the arts. He comes from Eugene, Oregon. He has degrees in Piano from Northwestern — while on an oboe scholarship —, in Musicology from the University of Chicago, and in Musicology and Comparative Arts from USC. He has taught at UCLA, Yale, the Shanghai Conservatory of Music, Southern Methodist University, and the University of Oregon. He is a MacIntosh addict, a Hypercardiac, a Casio Synthesizer, a Mozart devotee, and has never been known to refuse a Twinkie before breakfast. (right)

Peter Neary

Dr. Neary comes to NCSA from the Aspen Institute. He received his Ph.D. in social ethics from the University of Mainz, West Germany, after completing masters degrees in American history, theology, and philosophy. Other activities include importing and retailing fine wines and work in various political organizations, including the U.S. House of Representatives. (left)

Charles Dunn

Charles Edwin Dunn, a native of Elwood, Indiana. He attended the University of Illinois, graduated with a B.A. in Political Science in International Relations. He has worked in higher education at the University of Evansville, Lander College, Rice University, St. John's College, and the North Carolina School of the Arts. He has four children and is married to Nancy Jane Crow. (above)

VIS

A Vision Of

Sigrid Hall and Valerie Adams enjoy a few precious moments of "free time" before tackling an all-night project.

TOMORROW'S ARTISTS

Bats aren't the only creatures who come out at night! At 3:00 AM, the halls are still occupied by visual artists Tina Dalley, Margaret Griffith, and Sarah Reed (left).

From Russia With a Seagull

The drama class from Moscow arrived here with high expectations and left with tons of memories. Although their performances received rave reviews, their off-stage experience established much attention. The Welcome Dance was a hit and our people were wearing Soviet pins exchanged for friendly conversations. And, we can't wait for next year for them to return!!

PICKLES

What a weekend! We played hard but we got beat. We lost a tough one to Wake Forest. Our sports commentators were there reporting every play. A big thank you to Gus Reyes and John Freeman. We had a great dance the Saturday before the game in the cafeteria. And the crowning of the King and Queen was exceptional! Who would ever have thought Reagan Stone and Roger "Roxie" Miller. The bonfire was a little disappointing — simply because it wasn't cold! You played a good game and all is not lost. There is always next year!

Thanks so much to our dancers for their entertainment during half-time, to Zuri Goldman for being our fighting Pickle, and to all our cheerleaders for trying so hard.

MAYBE NEXT YEAR!
